

Middle
Flint
Behavioral
HealthCare

Matthew Almeida

Chief Operations Officer

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We at Middle Flint BHC offer high-quality care, affordable treatment, and comprehensive education for individuals dealing with addiction, emotional struggles, behavioral challenges, and developmental issues. We address problems through expert and collaborative behavioral healthcare solutions.

CONTACT INFORMATION

-  (229) 815-5045
-  matthewa@mfbbc.org
-  Americus / GA / USA
-  www.mfbbc.org

Matthew Almeida started his career in the medical field as a U.S. Navy Hospital Corpsman. Serving a total of ten years, Matthew served in various capacities to include clinical and administrative roles in various parts of the United States and overseas. A few of his most memorable duty stations include Japan, Thailand, USS Carney, DDG 64 and a deployment during operation Iraqi Freedom/Noble Eagle post 9/11. Matthew also served as a combat medic with the United States Marine Corps, 3rd Medical Battalion, 3rd Field Service Support Group (FSSG). During his time on active-duty, Matthew earned three Navy Achievement Medals, Sea Service Deployment Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Service Medal and Good Conduct Medal.

Once leaving the Military, Matthew transitioned to hospital and clinical roles and has worked for Ochsner Clinic Foundation, Phoebe Putney Health System, Sports and Wellness and Limbcare Prosthetics. Some of his past roles include family practice residency program coordinator, practice manager for clinical services, operations director, director of facility/program development and chief operations officer. Matthew currently serves as the Chief Operations Officer and Corporate Compliance Officer for Middle Flint Behavioral HealthCare in Americus, Georgia.

In addition to his medical background, Matthew has a background in law enforcement and has worked with the Clay County, Florida Sheriff's Office, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana Sheriff's Office, Department of Homeland Security and a volunteer deputy for the Sumter County, Georgia, Sheriff's Office.

Matthew is a board certified and state licensed orthotist, a board-certified pastoral counselor, board certified mental health coach, and board-certified pastoral crisis counselor. Matthew has an associate degree in financial services and bachelor's degree in Business Management/Accounting from the University of Phoenix and a master's degree in Healthcare Administration from Southern New Hampshire university. He is currently pursuing a Doctorate in Policy and Law from Liberty University.

Matthew is a Fellow of the Global Academy of Finance and Management and holds the Accredited Management Accountant (AMA) and Certified Compliance Officer (CCO) credentials. He is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, American Counseling Association, Association of Biblical Counselors and the American Association of Christian Counselors.

Matthew resides in Americus, Georgia with his wife of 19 years Jennifer, their son Zachary and their dog Hershey. They live on a 12-acre farm and raise chickens and beef cattle as well as grow vegetables in their garden. Matthew is a member of Cornerstone church and an ordained minister. He currently serves as a member of the pastoral counseling and medical response teams.

In Matthew's free time, he enjoys hiking with his family, driving his tractor around the farm, sitting by the fire pit and drinking lots of coffee! He also enjoys working with his cows, especially his favorite cow, Marigold!

We are a community of care providers that prioritize your health and well-being.

Serving Crawford, Crisp, Dooly, Houston, Macon, Marion, Peach, Schley, Sumter, Taylor and Webster Counties